1.0 POLICY:

Programs and support services will be reviewed on a regular basis. The Superintendent shall ensure that review procedures occur with appropriate reports provided to the Board.

The Board recognizes that review of certain phases of the operation of the District could best be accomplished by specialists not regularly employed by the District. Therefore, the superintendent shall recommend to the Board the use of such services when deemed appropriate. In other cases, the evaluation process shall be accomplished by District personnel.

Additionally, the superintendent will cooperate with governmental and accrediting agencies in review of District programs and services.
